(5) Solicitation and Receipt of Contributions.

a. Charitable Contribution Fundraising.

1. The solicitation of funds by an Elected Official for a non-profit charitable organization, as defined under the Internal Revenue Code, is permissible so long as there is no quid pro quo or other special consideration, including any direct or indirect benefit between the parties to the solicitation.
2. To promote the full and complete transparency of any such solicitation, an Elected Official shall disclose, on a form created by the Broward County Attorney's Office, the name of the charitable organization, the event for which the funds were solicited, and the name of any individual or entity that may have promoted the solicitation. The form shall be filed for public inspection.
3. An Elected Official may not use staff or other resources of his or her governmental entity in the solicitation of charitable contributions.
4. The requirements and prohibitions of this subpart shall not apply to actions of an Elected Official in connection with charities or fundraising events sponsored by the official's governmental entity.
5. Salary received by a Municipal Official from a non-profit charitable organization employing the Municipal Official shall not be considered a quid pro quo or other special consideration for purposes of paragraph 1 above. Additionally, the disclosure requirement contained in paragraph 2 above shall not apply to Municipal Officials who are employed by a non-profit charitable organization when soliciting charitable contributions on behalf of that organization.
